WARREN COLLEGE

Warren residence halls and apartments are located near the UCSD ecological reserve, a canyon filled with eucalyptus trees and hiking trails. Residential buildings, named after Supreme Court justices, surround basketball and sand volleyball courts as well as a large green space available for various activities. The Canyon View Aquatic Center features an Olympic-size pool, climbing wall, and weight room, and the nearby Price Center offers guests alternative dining and meeting rooms if needed.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Residence halls feature suite-style accommodations, including a common living room area, study space and single, double and triple rooms. Guests may also be housed in two bedroom apartment units complete with living rooms, kitchens, and bathrooms that accommodate up to 5 guests.

AMENITIES

Bi-weekly cleaning of common areas, easy access to laundry facilities, and Wi-Fi are available in all residential areas. Option for Triton Blue and Triton Gold housekeeping services.

MEETING SPACES

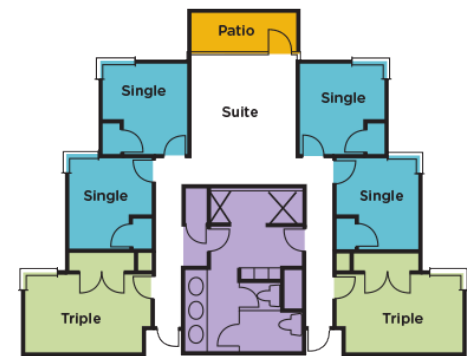

The Yosemite Room boasts an amazing canyon view and large square footage. The space is perfect for meetings, receptions, and hosted dinners. The JK Wood Lounge just above the Yosemite room provides guests a more intimate lounge space, perfect for breakouts or discussion groups.

DINING

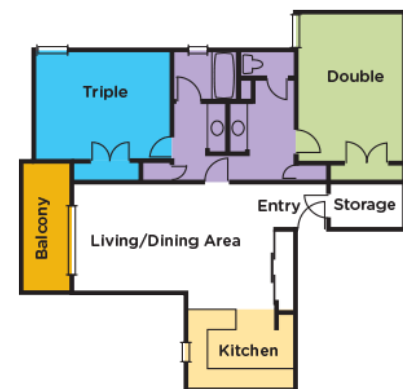

Canyon Vista Restaurant, Warren's neighborhood dining facility, boasts a breezy outdoor terrace overlooking the canyon, an indoor roaring fireplace, and an all-you care-to-eat menu.
